

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY

HIGHLIGHTS

ABOUT THE CITY

- Thermal Baths
- Affordable, City Destination
- Architecture

Budapest is the capital of Hungary, formed from three cities surrounding the Danube River. It is a rapidly growing city filled with history.

WHERE TO STAY

- Stay on the "Pest" side, the east side of the river
- Stay central: between the areas of the Chain Bridge, District V, Inner City, and Erzsebetvaros
- Hotels (example: Corinthia Hotel)

There are many great hotel options in Budapest that fall in a variety of price ranges. The "Pest" side is more vibrant while the "Buda" side is more residential.

HOW TO GET AROUND

- Walk
- Taxi
- Metro

Budapest has their own rideshare services, such as Bolt. Make sure to look into the latest options, as your default company may not be available!

WHAT TO DO

- Walk the Chain Bridge
- Tour the Parliament Building
- Szechenyi Thermal Baths

WHERE TO EAT

- Cafe Kor (classic hungarian dishes near St. Stephen's Basilica, cash only)
- Ruzswurm (famous cream cake, oldest pastry shop in the city)
- Ruin Cafe (hip collection of pubs, selling food & drinks)

